

DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRONICS AND COMMUNICATION ENGINEERING

LIBRARY

“Libraries store the energy that fuels the imagination. They open up windows to the world and inspire us to explore and achieve, and contribute to improving our quality of life”

-Sidney Sheldon

Libraries play an essential role in local communities by providing access to information and resources, supporting literacy and education, promoting lifelong learning and serving as a community gathering space.